

Enbridge Gas Inc. has applied to dispose of certain deferral and variance account balances

Enbridge Gas Inc. (Enbridge Gas) has applied to the Ontario Energy Board for approval to dispose of amounts recorded in certain 2022 deferral and variance accounts related to its delivery of natural gas conservation and energy efficiency programs.

If the application is approved as filed, Enbridge Gas says that typical residential customers would see the following one-time changes as soon as April 1, 2025:

- A typical residential customer in the Enbridge Gas Distribution rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,400 m³ would see a charge of $8.69
- A typical residential customer in the Union South rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,200 m³ would see a refund of $0.51
- A typical residential customer in the Union North rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,200 m³ would see a refund of $6.79

Enbridge Gas has also applied for approval to include an interim deferral disposition of $60 million to offset a portion of overspent amounts related to the Home Efficiency Rebate Plus offering in 2024. If the additional $60 million is approved as filed, a typical residential customer in the EGD Rate Zone and in the Union Rate Zones would see the following additional one-time changes as soon as April 1, 2025:

- A typical residential customer in the Enbridge Gas Distribution rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,400 m³ would see a charge of $16.21
- A typical residential customer in the Union South rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,200 m³ would see a charge of $16.71
- A typical residential customer in the Union North rate zone with an annual consumption of 2,200 m³ would see a charge of $16.71

Other customers, including businesses, will also be affected. It is important to review the application carefully to determine whether you may be affected by the proposed changes.

YOU SHOULD KNOW

There are three types of OEB hearings: oral, electronic, and written. The applicant has applied for a written hearing, and the OEB plans to proceed with a written hearing. If you think a different hearing type is needed, you can write to us to explain why.

During this hearing, we will hear questions and arguments from participants about this case. We will also hear questions and arguments from participants that have registered as Intervenor. After the hearing, we will decide whether to approve the application.

The OEB intends to consider cost awards in this proceeding that are in accordance with the OEB's Practice Direction on Cost Awards and only in relation to the review of the 2022 Demand Side Management deferral and variance account balances and the allocation of any disposed amounts for all three deferral and variance accounts.
